

Review

I used to get up early. VS I'm used to getting up early.

Grammar: * used to VS V_{be} used to

John recently moved to a new city for a new job. He used to get up at 10 AM, but this new job starts at 8 AM, so he needs to get up at 7 AM now.

However, after a few months, he is used to getting up early every day.

Exercise: fill in the blanks with 'used to' or 'is/am/are used to'.

1. She _____ living in a big city now.
2. They _____ spicy food because they grew up in Thailand.
3. It took her some time, but it seems she _____ where she lives now.
4. We can understand him better because we _____ how he talks now.

What do you want? Tell me what you want!

Grammar: * Noun Clause

What he said was true.

It is impossible to do what he did.

Nobody knows when she will arrive.

Who I am is not important.

Exercise: Question or Noun Clause.

- | | | | |
|----|-------------------------------------|-----------------------------------|--------------------------------------|
| 1. | What will he do | <input type="checkbox"/> Question | <input type="checkbox"/> Noun Clause |
| 2. | I know what he will do | <input type="checkbox"/> Question | <input type="checkbox"/> Noun Clause |
| 3. | No one knows when she is coming | <input type="checkbox"/> Question | <input type="checkbox"/> Noun Clause |
| 4. | When is she coming | <input type="checkbox"/> Question | <input type="checkbox"/> Noun Clause |
| 5. | I'm talking about what we should do | <input type="checkbox"/> Question | <input type="checkbox"/> Noun Clause |
| 6. | He asked me what the time was | <input type="checkbox"/> Question | <input type="checkbox"/> Noun Clause |
| 7. | I want to know why he left the job | <input type="checkbox"/> Question | <input type="checkbox"/> Noun Clause |
| 8. | I love how he treats others | <input type="checkbox"/> Question | <input type="checkbox"/> Noun Clause |
| 9. | What she did surprised me | <input type="checkbox"/> Question | <input type="checkbox"/> Noun Clause |

Exercise: Brainstorming.

1. _____ is not important.

2. He always talks about _____

3. It doesn't matter _____

4. _____ is none of your business.

5. We know _____