

Review

The people who called yesterday want to buy this house.

Grammar: * Relative Clause with 'who'

A: We're going to earn a commission from this house soon. Let's celebrate.

B: Really? How come?

A: Remember that last call we got yesterday?

B: Ummm....

A: A woman called and asked about this house. She really wants to buy it.

B: So, the woman who called yesterday wants to buy this house.

This was the person. + He told me about this technique.

Exercise: combine these two sentences using 'who'.

1. The woman is very kind. + She lives next door.

---

2. The waitress was impolite + She served us.

---

3. The boy is now in hospital. + He was injured in the accident.

---

The person whom you called yesterday wants to buy this house.

Grammar: ✕ Relative Clause with 'whom'

A: We're going to earn a commission from this house soon. Let's celebrate.

B: Really? How come?

A: Remember I talked to someone on the phone yesterday?

B: Yes, and?

A: A friend recommended a prospective customer, so I called him.

It turned out he was very interested in this house.

B: So, the person whom you called yesterday wants to buy this house.

There was only one person. + Our MD spoke to him at the party last night.

Exercise: combine these two sentences using 'whom'.

1. The woman is actually very kind. + You met her last night.

---

2. The doctor was very thorough. + Peter went to see her.

---

3. The boy was away. + Nan wanted to see him.

---

4. The people are very nice. + I used to work with them.

---

5. This morning, I met a friend. + I had not seen him for ages.

---